House Rules & Party Tools

¡Tacos, Tequila and Good Times!

Let's Taco 'Bout Your Party

Your fiesta just found its flavor! 🌶️ We're pumped that you're considering BOMBA ¡Tacos + Tequila! for your celebration. To help you plan like a pro, we've rounded up answers to the questions our party people ask most.

Event Spaces: Looking to host 20, 50, 200 guests? We have a room for that. We have the bar, outdoor patio, half the restaurant or you can book the entire place. Depending on your needs, we'll recommend the best set-up.

Room Minimums: There are no room fees, however, minimum charges may apply depending on the day/time of year.

Guest Count: Please have your final head count no later than three (3) days prior to your event. This number will be considered final and charges will be made accordingly. If we don't receive an update, the guest count from your agreement will be considered final.

Outside Vendors: Do you have a balloon wizard or special bakery you want to use? We're here for it. We love working with local vendors and are happy to coordinate the logistics.

Screens, Music and More: Want to display a slideshow, company logo or need a microphone for an announcement or speech? We've got you covered. Just ask. Just please note that there may be a fee if you require any extra AV equipment that needs to be rented.

Let's Plan a Party: Send all inquiries or questions to events@BombaTacos.com
